PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the concept of co-working has revolutionized the way individuals and businesses collaborate, innovate, and create meaningful connections across the globe; and

WHEREAS, International Co-Working Day provides an opportunity to recognize and celebrate the transformative power of co-working spaces, which foster entrepreneurship, collaboration, and community building; and

WHEREAS, co-working spaces have become hubs of creativity, enabling individuals from diverse backgrounds and industries to work, learn, and grow together; and

WHEREAS, co-working spaces have emerged as vital catalysts for economic development, attracting startups, freelancers, and small businesses, and contributing to job creation and economic growth; and

WHEREAS, the flexibility and agility of co-working spaces provide a supportive environment for remote workers, freelancers, and digital nomads, allowing them to thrive and connect with a like-minded community; and

WHEREAS, co-working spaces foster social connections and well-being, combating isolation and offering opportunities for networking, mentorship, and professional development; and

WHEREAS, it is essential to recognize the contributions of co-working spaces and their impact on local communities, businesses, and the global economy; and

WHEREAS, Salt Lake City is happy to celebrate the 16 co-working spaces within our great City.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Erin Mendenhall, Mayor of Salt Lake City, proclaim August 9, 2023, as:

Co-Working Day in Salt Lake City
