

SALT LAKE CITY FOOTHILLS TRAIL SYSTEM PLAN

BACKGROUND

Prior to 2020, Salt Lake City conducted its first public process to develop a trail system master plan for approximately 6,000 acres of foothills open space along the north and east sides of the city. The City is evaluating work completed on Phase I to improve Phase II and III implementation of the project.

PROJECT GOALS

Ensure Trail Sustainability

Uphold Environmental Protection Values

Improve User
Experience &
Accessibility

PROJECT TIMELINE

Aug-Sep 2022

EVALUATION OF EXISTING PLAN

Sep-Oct 2022

EXISTING USER DEMAND EVALUATION

Oct 2022

ENGAGEMENT LAUNCH

Nov-Jan 2023

EVALUATION OF PHASE I TRAILS

Feb-Apr 2023

PHASE II & III EVALUATION

Spring 2023

PUBLIC REVIEW

Spring 2023

FINAL DRAFT RECOMMENDATIONS
AND MAINTENANCE PLAN

PUBLIC ENGAGEMENT

Your input matters!

Learn about the project and leave your feedback by scanning the QR code to join our mailing list.

Help us answer questions such as:

- Are there any areas you consider too crowded?
- Do you see areas in need of improvement?
- Where do you like to recreate?

PROJECT CONTACTS

ANNAKA EGAN | aegan@seggroup.com

TYLER FONAROW | tyler.fonarow@slcgov.com