

Jacqueline M. Biskupski

Mayor

WHEREAS, April marks the 50th Anniversary of the passage of the national Fair Housing Act of 1968, which seeks to eliminate discrimination in housing opportunities and to affirmatively further housing choices for all Americans; and

WHEREAS, the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development has declared April to be “Fair Housing Month” with the theme of The Fair Housing Act of 1968: 50 Years of Opening Doors; and

WHEREAS, Salt Lake City supports fair housing for all residents of the United States and seeks to assure equal access to all Americans to rental housing and homeownership opportunities; and

WHEREAS, Salt Lake City welcomes this opportunity to reaffirm its commitment to provide equal access to housing to all of its residents without regard to race, color, religion, sex, disability, age, familial status, national origin, source of income, sexual orientation, or gender identity; and

WHEREAS, through GrowingSLC, the City’s first housing plan in over a decade, the Capital City is committed to ensuring equity, eliminating housing discrimination, and creating housing for all people to thrive.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jacqueline M. Biskupski, Mayor of Salt Lake City, do hereby proclaim April 2018, as:

Fair Housing Month in Salt Lake City

Dated April 1, 2018

Jacqueline M. Biskupski
Mayor