

Hi Salt Lakers,

Happy Thanksgiving! Wishing you all a safe holiday surrounded by friends and family. 🦃

Shop Small in Salt Lake City

Did you know that nearly 96% of our businesses in Salt Lake City are small businesses?

Whether you're shopping in Sugar House, the Maven District, or downtown, choosing local is one of the most meaningful ways we can support our small businesses this holiday season. Each purchase from a locally-owned shop or restaurant keeps our dollars here at home and strengthens the city's economy.

Shop Small, Shop Local

Our commitment to equality

I am grateful to report that this year, Salt Lake City has returned to the Human Rights Campaign's top Municipal Equality Index score of 100. We know there is always more work to be done—but we will never stop doing it.

Winter Farmers Market at the Civic Center

The Winter Farmers Market will return on Dec. 6 to the heart of Salt Lake City's civic center (in the former Leonardo Museum building at 209 E. 500 S.)! This year, there are more than 70 vendors, making it a perfect destination for holiday shopping.

Last chance to apply for a Love Your Block mini-grant

If you've got an idea for a project in Westside and Ballpark neighborhoods, Love Your Block is accepting applications to fund projects up to $2,000 through Nov. 30th. Apply today!

ICYMI:

- Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Salt Lake and Salt Lake City entered into a partnership to bring youth afterschool programming back to Glendale for this school year after the closure of Club programming in August.
- The Salt Lake City Community Reinvestment Agency \(CRA\) is increasing access to housing and creating new pathways to homeownership for low- and moderate-income residents by investing $14.4 million into the community.
- The completion of Backman Community Open Space, 601 N. 1500 West, shows what's possible when we invest in our neighborhoods, creating a reimagined, safe place for Rose Park to grow and thrive.
