As part of the Funding Our Future bond, Salt Lake City will reconstruct 200 South from 400 West to 900 East. To begin the process the City is initiating a corridor plan, in partnership with Salt Lake County and UTA. The study will evaluate transit and mobility improvements and a transit hub to serve as a focal point where different modes of travel – walking, biking, transit, and shared mobility – seamlessly converge.

We're asking you to share how you use 200 South now and how you'd like to use it in the future.

Join us to find out more.
