PUBLIC HEARING

2. Demolition of a Contributing Structure at Approximately 1259 E 200 S – Logan Johnson, on behalf of the property owner, is requesting approval to demolish the building at the above listed address. The building is listed as a contributing structure in the most recent historic resource survey. Currently, the land is used as a 3-unit multi-family building, and the property is zoned R-2 Single and Two-Family Residential. The subject property is within Council District 4, represented by Eva Lopez Chavez. (Staff Contact: Seth Rios at 801-535-7758 or seth.rios@slc.gov) Case Number: PLNHLC2025-00919

Principal Planner Seth Rios reviewed the petition as outlined in the staff report and stated that staff is recommending denial of the proposal.

The applicant, Logan Johnson, reviewed the intent for the project.

Public Hearing

The Chair opened the public hearing.

- William Grua – Opposed to the demolition saying that it chips away at the boundaries of the historic district. He also commented that the proposal would change the nature of his home and the historic district.

- Abby Bacha – Opposed to the demolition saying the community does not need soulless development and precedence calls for preservation of the home.
- Cindy Cromer – Shared concerns that the proposed demolition would materially harm the concentration of historic resources by triggering incremental encroachment from the nearby business district.
- Griffin Zode – Opposed to the demolition saying that the house was repeatedly marked as a contributing structure. He worried the demolition would open up opportunities for developers to further degrade the historic district.
- Melanie Martin – Resident of the home, shared concerns that the structure stands in a unique position between residential and commercial zones and felt it was protecting the neighborhood from unwanted development. She stated that preserving the home is crucial to the historic integrity of the neighborhood.
- Ada May Krause – Opposed to the demolition.
- A comment card was read into the record stating that they wanted the home preserved.

The applicant was given the opportunity to respond to the public comments. He stated that they did not intend to mislead with their arguments and apologized to anyone who felt that they were. He stated that he should do more research in historic preservation.

The Chair closed the public hearing.
