3. Northwest Plan Update – Continued from the January 28, 2026, Planning Commission meeting – Mayor Mendenhall has initiated a petition to complete a comprehensive update to the Northwest Community Plan. The Northwest Community Plan is a land use plan for the land that is generally located between I-15 and the Salt Lake International Airport, with the city boundary to the north and I-80 to the south. The Northwest Community Plan was originally adopted in 1992. The updated plan will provide guidance on existing and anticipated development in the Rose Park, Fairpark, Jordan Meadows, Poplar Grove, and Westpointe neighborhoods, for the next 15 years. The plan also includes the North Temple Station Area Plans for the four TRAX Stations within the Plan area. The Northwest Community is located in Council Districts 1 and 2, represented by Victoria Petro and Alejandro Puy. (Staff Contact: Cassie Younger at 801-535-6211 or at cassie.younger@slc.gov) Case Number: PLNPCM2025-00773
